I am excited to announce what I hope to be my biggest fundraising release of the year, which will support Downtown Streets Team, a non-profit that helps people out of homelessness by providing a reasonable path to employment.

The release is not yet ready, but the artwork will be unveiled at Downtown Streets Team's weekly Success Meeting, where their Team Members celebrate successes from the previous week. This will be streamed to Instagram Live next Tues, Nov 30th at 11am PST. You can join by going to my_page in the Instagram app or on your browser. The stream will be available on my Instagram page afterwards if you are unavailable to watch live but still interested in checking it out.

The release will include one print and one hand-painted multiple sold on my website, plus 5 collabs with local artists Jeremy Novy, Ethel Hays, Luinova, Kate Tova and Lucky Rapp that will be auctioned on eBay. 50% of sales will be donated to Downtown Streets Team, and I have someone matching my donations dollar-for-dollar up to $75,000!

Several of the artists and I will join the Success Meeting meeting to engage with the Team Members, share our art, and hear their stories. These meetings are fun and casual and typically take about an hour. Just to be clear, these meetings happen every week, and we're just joining the festivities next week!

I will share more details about the release soon!

Best,
fnnch
